2021 EAGLE AWARDS

Baseball player Pablo Lanzarote of Venezuela and softball player Rebekah Fields of Corinth were the winners of the 2021 Eagle Awards. The Eagle Awards are given to the male and female student-athletes who embody what it means to be a Hinds Eagle. They have excelled in athletic competition and in the classroom and have served the community.

Lanzarote finished the 2021 regular season with a .330 batting average and led the team in home runs, with 12, and RBIs, with 45. He was a member of the Gamma Lambda chapter of Phi Theta Kappa honor society and made the President's and Dean's lists twice at Hinds. He graduated with a 3.69 GPA and was headed to Purdue University.

Fields played third base and hit .287 for the Hinds Lady Eagles softball team to go along with four home runs and 13 RBIs. She was named a 3E Outstanding Student, made NJCAA All-Academic First Team and Who's Who in Community and Junior Colleges. She was a member of the Honors Institute and the Gamma Lambda chapter of Phi Theta Kappa honor society. She planned to attend Mississippi State University.
